

PEDROTTI GRAIN DRYERS

PEDROTTI STATIC TRAY DRYERS

The universal dryer is a perfect model to dry everything, even the most difficult crop, thanks to its intuitive functions and the easiness of the working operations.

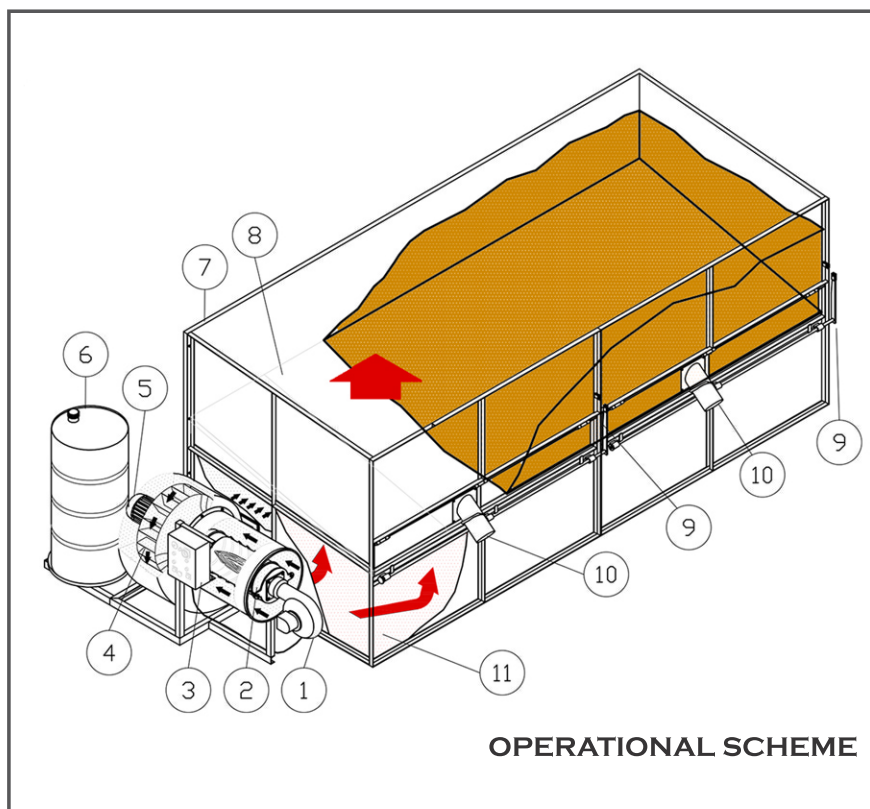

With a double bagging output, easy to clean and regulate, it is perfect to dry small amounts of crops down to the desired moisture level. Being a static dryer it is also the ideal machine to dry also the soft grains, without any scratch or damage on the crop skins.
